

WINSTON SILL/FREELANCE PHOTOGRAPHER

Departing British High Commissioner Peter Mathers (right) looks at a plaque with his wife Elisabeth and daughter Philippa while Trinidad and Tobago High Commissioner Dennis Francis looks on. The diplomatic corps hosted a farewell reception for the Mathers, which was held at the Jamaica Pegasus Hotel, Knutsford Boulevard, New Kingston last Monday.

his retirement, and being the scene of a number of successful policy initiatives that served to enhance British standing not just in Jamaica, but in the region, will most certainly only serve to underline his role as one of the region's more senior and more accomplished diplomats.

That he will be sorely missed, is without question, a fact underlined by the many dinners, receptions, brunches and soirees hosted in his and his family's honour.

To say farewell to their many friends and colleagues, here in Jamaica, on Thursday last, High Commissioner Mathers and Mrs. Mathers, and their daughter Philippa, hosted a farewell reception on the grounds of Trafalgar House, that was one stellar occasion burdened by mixed emotions.

Dear, High Commissioner Mathers:

Susan Alexander; eminent attorney-at-law Emil George and wife Dr. Pamela George; the charmingly lovely Jeannie Watson and her son James Watson; Dr. John and Paddy Masterton; Dr. Marshall Hall; Joe Matalon and companion Bernadette McKinley-Morin; Earl Levy; Adrian and Darilyn Foreman; Drs. Dhru and Laura Tanna; Christopher and Jill Roberts; Peter and Beverly Rousseau; Mrs. Joy Mahfood; George Fatta; Col. Trevor MacMillan and wife Dr. Peaches MacMillan; DCP Mark Shields; Mike and Peggy

Fennell; Patrick and Marguerite Lynch; AnneMarie Feanny; Drs. Richard and Carolyn Gomes; the charming Jeanette Hutchinson; Milton Samuda; Mark Pritchett; Horace and Josephine Bogues; Peter and Lawayne Kolbusch; Marge Sigurdson; Frank Roshevel and daughter; Anthony Chang; Andrea Beckhoff Benjamin and daughter; Rosina Moder-Ashbourne; William Lampert and wife Anna Kaiser; Ruddy and Joy Mc Hugh; Lloyd and Sonia Tomlinson; Ian Murphy; Keith Collister; Paul Lalor and his lovely Trinidadian companion; Peter Bovell and his daughter; Rev. Devon Dick and wife Mary; siblings David and Mary Johns; John Risden; Rupert and Joan Lindo and their son Alexander Lindo, who rendered two musical items in honour of the departing High Commissioner and his family; Malcolm Bath and Christine Kaluza; Desmond and Eileen Bonner; and John and Tallulah Schnabel; plus several others, including a number of the High Commission's staff. And dears, yes, the Mathers will be sorely missed!

SUMMER FROLIC SUMMER CAMP LIBERTY ACADEMY AT THE PRIORY

July 11-29, 2005
MONDAYS - FRIDAYS
AGES 8-12
8:00 AM-1:00 PM

ACTIVITIES INCLUDE:

DRAMA
DANCE
CONVERSATIONAL SPANISH
ACADEMIC ENHANCEMENT COURSES
GSAT PRE-PREPARATION

ART & CRAFT
MUSIC

FUN DAY TOURS CONCERT

REGISTRATION

DATES: THURSDAY, July 7, 2005
FRIDAY, July 8, 2005
TIMES: 9:00 AM- 2:00 PM
LOCATION: LIBERTY ACADEMY AT THE PRIORY
92 HOPE ROAD, KINGSTON 10

REGISTER EARLY
FREE CAMP T-SHIRT FOR FIRST 100
THREE WEEK REGISTRANTS
(LIMITED SPACE)

FOR FURTHER DETAILS
TELEPHONE:
924-0973 / 383-4906
email: duncan@anbell.net

THE GLEANER'S WEEKLY ENTERTAINMENT & TV GUIDE

the ENTERTAINER

Your
24 PAGE
Weekly
Entertainment Guide
Free with your Saturday Gleaner

The Gleaner

Where life unfolds

<http://www.go-jamaica.com/entertainer/>